A MORAL Rearmament team, representing 14 countries and four continents from the Far East to the Americas, arrive in Somerset West on March 18 to spend four days in town.

Aged between 17 and 30, they will have contact with youth groups and leaders of all races. Amongst them is former West Indies cricket vice-captain, Conrad Hunte.

The group will be guests of the Peace Movement and will stay with local families.

On Saturday, March 19, they will present a show in the Barnabas Show Hall, Church Street at 20h00 and conduct the morning service at 10h30 in the Church Street, Methodist Church.

The 25 members arrive in Cape Town on Saturday for their month-long visit. Their aim is to spread a Christian-based message of peace amongst people.

On Sunday at 15h00 they will present their revue "Time to Choose" at St Margaret's Hall, Fish Hoek.
