

6 - JAN 1964

DATE..... EVENING POST RE

^{m.k.A} 'Dictator's Slippers' applauded

"THE DICTATOR'S SLIPPERS," a Moral Re-Armament play with an African cast, was staged in New Brighton yesterday before more than 500 people. The cast were warmly applauded.

The cast will give their final performance for non-Europeans at the Opera on Saturday afternoon.

In the cast are teachers, clerks, office workers and students drawn from the townships of Johannesburg.

The play, written by Peter Howard, was introduced by Mr Bremer Hofmeyer, who has been with the task force of M.R.A. in every part of the world since he left Oxford in 1934.

The cast were welcomed to St Stephen's Hall, New Brighton, by the Rev. D. N. Mbopa, Rector of St Stephen's, and the Rev. G. B. Molefe.

Mr P. Q. Vundla, who has travelled with the Moral Re-Armament all over the world, thanked the audience for their support.