

Pictured above is a group of young people from the Moral Rearmament group who recently visited Garment Centre. These young people from all over the world are committed to a moral and spiritual strengthening of the Western world through Christian principles. Their aim is to publish their ideology throughout the world — their medium is song.

These young people have dedicated their lives to bring about a peaceful change in the world by accepting the four moral standards:

- Absolute love
- Absolute honesty
- Absolute unselfishness
- Absolute purity

If the world could be ruled by this, they believe it would be a wonderful world.
