

Music For "World" Men

RIGHT: Mr. Hubert Eggegan, on the left, wearing the laced and decorated uniform of Miners in Germany dating from 200 years back, chats with Mr. Molaodi Mosielele, News Editor of The World, and Mr. B. Hofmeyer of M.R.A. at The World offices when a team of 20 Moral Rearmament members visited the premises of the newspaper.
