

Cast of 50 from 19 nations Vijaylakshmi Subrahmanyam, India

Anything to Declare?

or IL EST PERMIS DE SE PENCHER AU DEHORS

Musical revue presented by Moral Re-Armament

Rattling good entertainment

Time and Tide, London

Masterly choreography . . . Music modern and outstanding

Der Bund, Switzerland

With humour, satire and vision exposes the issues of the day

Rotterdams Nieuwsblad, Holland

Penetrating, full of melody and colour

Goteborgs Posten, Sweden

27 songs from all over the world . . . public goes out refreshed

France Soir, Paris

LOOKING IN ON EUROPE

Above: Michel Orphelin, France, and Stuart Dennison, England

Russian dance in a sequence of European folk songs and dances

A WORLD OUT THERE
 A journey through
 European history in music, mime and song

Left
A pilgrim (Michel Orphelin)

Right
Joan of Arc (Sylvie Haller)

Below
The Renaissance

Below right
The Twentieth Century

Below right
A curtain runs right round the world
Between the rich and poor.
One side is proud, the other hates,
It need go on no more.

Below
Oh, Noah, build that ship,
Build that ship on time.
That keel you lay
May save the day,
Launch that ship on time.

Black men, white men, brown men,
Are trapped by colour bars. (too,
If we just opened up our hearts
We'd heal those bitter scars.

*photos by
 Houston Rogers*

