
'SPRINGBOK STAMPEDE' A HIT

SPRINGBOK Stampede infected the audience last night with its youthful vigour and throbbing tempo of its music.

Right from the start the Stampedeers held the audience, singing their way through a programme of lively and catchy music.

"Go Man Go" was one of the songs and this is just what the cast did. A full house roared with delight when they were invited to join in the singing and after the sixth encore a deafening "yes" answered the Stampedeers' question: "Do you want to start a Kimberley Springbok Stampede?" Songs of South African heroes, men in the mines and industries, Dr. Chris Barnard and wars were very well executed. — I. M.